

STUDENT

Boost your resume!

1. Volunteer as a Student Section Leader
2. ASME Student Leadership Training Conference (SLTC)

Connect on campus
with your local
Student Section (ASME club at college/university).

Join for free
as a freshman and only $25 a year after that.

E-Fest Competitions

Get noticed at ASME student engineering festivals.

Attend A Day in the Life Webinars

to learn about day-to-day activities of engineers working at innovative companies.

Including:
Lockheed Martin
Boeing
Tesla

Apply for ASME
Scholarships and Financial Aid.

Upload your resume to the
ASME Career Center
and search thousands of job
and internship postings.

Post Graduate Studies?

Masters and PhD Fellowships are available.

EARLY CAREER

Members receive Reduced Dues
for 4 years post-graduation.

Impact the future
of your field!

Participate in:
Engineering for Change (E4C)
Research Fellows
ASME Federal Government
Fellowship Programs

Join your local Professional
Section
to network with colleagues in your area.

Use the AccessEngineering online library to assist you with your engineering problems, research,
and projects.

Impress your boss by staying on top of engineering trends with Mechanical Engineering Magazine
&
R&D Pulse.

Volunteer on an ASME Committee

Hone your skills at ASME's Volunteer Orientation and Leadership Training (VOLT) Academy.

Keep up with professional development requirements with Learning & Development Courses.

View monthly
TEC Talk
webinars featuring leading experts addressing topical issues, challenges, and new technologies.

Attend
ASME Events and Conferences.

Connect to ASME peers who share your technical interests through affiliation with ASME Technical Divisions.

MID CAREER

Outstanding achievements in mechanical and multidisciplinary engineering recognized through

ASME Honors and Awards Program.

Put your knowledge and experience to work by participating in ASME's

Standards & Certification Development Activities.

Lead your

ASME Technical Division or Professional
Section

as a member volunteer.

Are you the next ASME Fellow?

Share research with colleagues at

ASME Conferences.

MENTOR